

NO CHANGE in Class.

~~DECLASSIFIED~~

Class. CHANGED to:

Auth: DRA REG. 77/1763

Date: _____ By: _____

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 10 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
Next Review Date: 2008

FLD
480

CONFIDENTIAL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP
INTELLIGENCE REPORT

25X1

25X1

COUNTRY China

DATE:

SUBJECT Military Information: Mongolian People's Republic Troops in Manchuria and Inner Mongolia: INFO. DIST. 23 March 1947

25X1

PAGES 3

ORIGIN

SUPPLEMENT

25X1

[illegible]

1. One group was sent from Bayan Tumen (Kerulen, 114-30, 43-04) through Manchouli (117-35, 49-30) to Hailar (119-44, 49-13).

Base:  Hallar

CO Lt. Gen. U-LU-HAN-TE, who trained in the USSR. [redacted] Note: The names of the commanding officers are romanizations of Chinese phoneticizations from the Mongolian.

Strength: approximately 5000 infantry troops, equipped by Soviets as modern mechanized forces.

Equipment: Tommy guns, light and heavy machine guns, and cold weather equipment.

Location: In the vicinity of:
U-na-erh (Unur, approx. 121-14, 48-53)
Po-ke-tu (Pokto, approx. 121-54, 48-45)
Chalantun (122-45, 48-01)
Pa-la-erh-chi (Fularki, approx. 123-39, 47-13)

Purpose: control of Tsi-Hai railroad line (between Tsitsihar, [123-57, 47-22] and Hailar).

2. A second group advanced through the southeastern part of Northern Chahar into Northern Jehol.

Base: Kan-chu-erh-miao (115-04,46-54, also given as Ganjur Sune and Ganchjur)

Headquarters: Chingp'eng (Keshikten, 117-25,43-21)

60 Lt. Gen. PA-LI-CH' I-CHA-PU

CONFIDENTIAL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

25X1

-2-

Strength 7,000 cavalry troops
 Equipment: light and heavy machine guns

25X1 Location: In the vicinity of Jarod Banner:
 [redacted] Note: East and West Jarod Banners have been combined and are at 121-00,44-35, according to a recently acquired chart of Mongolian banners which clarifies previous report on Mongolian banners.)
 Oro Khorchin Banner (120-05,44-20)
 Ongniud Banner (118-20,42-20)
 Keshikten Banner (117-20,43-20)
 Bairin Banner [redacted] Note: whether this is East or West Bairin is not indicated. West Bairin is at 118-30, 43-30; East Bairin is at 119-15,43-50).
 Purpose: Control of the eight banners of Ch'ao-Wu-Ta League.

3. Third group

Base and Headquarters: A-erh-shan (Khalon Arshan, 119-58,47-12)
 CO Lt. Gen. SE-MO-CHIN-T'E
 Strength: 7,000 mechanized infantry and cavalry troops
 Equipment: not stated
 Location: In the vicinity of:
 Solun (121-24,46-41) also
 Su-o-kung-fu (121-53,46-21), spelled Shuokenfu
 Wangyehmiao (122-01,46-05)
 T'aoan (122-52,45-37)
 Kokenmiao (approx. 122-15,45-59)
 Ch'ienhata (approx. 122-50,46-21)
 T'aiilai (123-32,46-21)
 Purpose: control of the following railroad lines:
 T'ao-So railroad line (between T'aoan, [11-28, 25-35] and Solun, [121-24,46-41]).
 T'ao-Ang railroad line (between T'aoan and Ang-ang-ch'i, [123-48, 47-09])
 Terminal of Ssu-T'ao railroad line (between T'aoan and Ssupingsieh, [124-22,43-11])

4. Fourth group

Base: Angangch'i
 Headquarters: Harbin
 CO Lt. Gen. WU-LI-CHA-PU, (half Russian and half Mongolian.) He is quite famous in the Mongolian People's Republic and has great military ability.

SECRET

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

Strength: 10,000 well-trained, well-equipped infantry and artillery troops.

Equipment: light and heavy machine guns and cannons (size not specified.)

Location: not stated

Purpose: control of the following railroads: Tsi-Ha railroad line (between Tsitsihar and Harbin) Pin-Sui railroad line (between Harbin and Suifenho, [131-09,44-23])
Pin-t'u (between Harbin and T'umen, [129-48, 42-58])

5. Fifth group (information incomplete)

Base: Fuyti (124-47,45-11)

Strength: 5,000 Infantry troops

~~SECRET~~

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL